COMMISSION WILL MAKE ASSESSMENT WITH BLOCK MAP

President of Council Boards and Engineer Will Make Appointment.

No Fireworks to be Used Inside the City.

MORE WORK ON SIDEWALKS.

Both the aldermen and the council passed on two readings last night that the resolution giving President Hannan, of the aldermen, President Foreman, of the council, and City Engineer Washington the power to appoint the committee which will assess the property in the city, according to the block map. The resolution provides that two real estate men and one contractor shall comprise the committee, which will estimate the value of every building in the city.

In the council the resolution was given two readings without much discussion, but in the aldermen it was discussed freely, especially in regard to giving the committee the right for the committee to determine the compensation of the committee and what length of time it shall work.

The purpose of leaving open the compensation to the committee was that the committee might have the work done as cheaply as possible. Some of the aldermen thought the committee should be elected by the general council. Alderman Stewart said if the assessing of the city property cost $2,000 it will be cheap, provided a competent committee assesses all the city property at a fair value.

When put to a vote the resolution carried by a vote of five to three, Alderman Farley, Potter and Van Meter voting "nay." On motion the rules were suspended and it was given second passage.

The Aldermen.

Young America will find little enjoyment in the Fourth of July or any national holiday if an ordinance fulfilling the wishes of the National Board of Fire Underwriters is passed by the general council. Alderman Lackey read a letter from the underwriters, who enclosed a copy of an ordinance adopted by several of the large cities as a model. By the ordinance the sale of fireworks, including crackers, toy blank pistols and fire works is prohibited. By wholesale the goods may be sold by the issuing of a permit by the general council. The ordinance provides that a special display may be given under the direction of a competent man, and the supervision of the fire chief. The main purpose of the movement is for a sane Fourth and to stop the damage by fire, and the destruction of lives on every national holiday. The ordinance committee was instructed to bring in an ordinance.

By two passages to a resolution, W. P. Bradshaw was granted permission to connect his property at 1601 Broadway with the sanitary sewer. By the provision he agrees to pay the regular assessment when sewer district No. 3 is constructed. The introduction of the resolution gave rise to considerable discussion as several similar requests have been rejected by the boards, but always because the property owners wanted to avoid the assessment when a new sewer system was built.

Rule Eight Abolished.

No longer will it be possible to bury ordinances in the committee, as last night a resolution, abolishing rule eight of the rule book of the board of aldermen was given two passages. By the substitute rule it is the privilege of the introducer of a motion to have it referred to any committee he may desire, and after two regular meetings, if not reported or an extension of time granted, any member may call the motion or ordinance from the committee and place it before the board. Before it has been possible for a committee to kill an ordinance by not reporting it.

Alderman Stewart introduced a motion that the ordinance committee bring in an ordinance prohibiting the ringing of any bells on the public streets with the exception of gongs on the fire apparatus and patrol wagon. He also called for the ordinance committee to make a report on the ordinances increasing the speed that automobiles may run in the city.

Alderman Farley made the motion that the city engineer furnish the grades for the improvement of Meyers street between Farley place and Clemente street. The motion was passed.

Retirement of Aldrich and Hale From Senate Means New Committee Assignment in the Upper House

General Opinion Expressed That They See End of Their Power---Indiana Situation ---Socialists in Power.

Washington, April 19.—For the first time in years the United States senate is in a dazed condition, following the announcement that Aldrich and Hale will retire. Among the senators the opinion is held that the men are retiring because they see the end of their power in view. The passing of Aldrich means that the committee on committees will be reorganized. While the changes will not go into effect till December, already they are debating on his successor. It is believed Senator Lodge will be considered for his place.

"Duties or leadership in the senate is no slight task. I have begun to feel the strain" was the statement of Aldrich today. He said, "length of service, and a desire to conserve my health are the reasons for the retirement." He sent a letter to Governor Pothier, this afternoon. He said he will remain active in co-operation with the national monetary commission, and has a great hope to accomplish something along that line. He intends to make it his life work. He refused to reconsider his determination. He intends to retire to his country home.

Hale Not Candidate. Washington, April 19.—Although the announcement that Senator Hale of Maine will not be a candidate is news to his colleagues in the senate today, a few confidential friends said it was known several days. Hale's friends say there was no doubt of his re-election, but admit he would have been forced through a hard campaign against the advice of his physicians.

To Nominate Senator. Indianapolis, April 19.—Disregarding opposition within his own party Governor Marshall today insisted on his plan to have the Democratic state convention next week nominate a party candidate of the United States senate. He said "delegates, representing the people are better able to choose the man they want than the legislators." He reiterated his refusal to be candidate.

Socialism in Milwaukee. Milwaukee, April 19.—Social Democratic municipal government was launched this morning when the Democratic administration of David S. Rose stepped out, and the Socialists headed by Emil Seidel, took charge. The new aldermen took their seats this afternoon. There are 21 Socialists and 14 Republicans and Democrats. In a speech to the council, replying to a committee sent to notify him that the council would hear his inaugural message, Mayor Seidel promised to consecrate himself to making Milwaukee a safe place for men, women and children. He said he will fulfill his duty to the people by caring for the laboring class. He will establish new municipal plants, hospitals, etc. He will abolish all soft jobs and regulate street car facilities.

Infant Dies. The four days old boy baby of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wilkins, of 416 South Ninth street died yesterday afternoon at 5:30. It was born Thursday evening at 7:30. The funeral was held this afternoon at the Mayfield Whitlock cemetery on the Mayfield road.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kelly.

Kansas City, Mo., April 19.—Frank P. Walsh, in defense of Hyde at trial today outlined the grounds on which he expects the jury to acquit the accused. He told the jury and court of the alleged entering of the Swope vault, and tampering with the body. He knew none of the witnesses are able to swear that Dr. Hyde gave Colonel Swope the poison that caused his death or swear positively that Hyde bled Moss Hunton to death; for G. T. CIRCUS DAY SCENE

NORRIS AND ROWE SHOWS WILL COME TOMORROW.

Arrives Early, Street Parade at 10—
Some of the Big Features This Year.

About the time Halley's comet rises tomorrow morning, the Greater Norris and Rowe circus, with its two trains of twenty-one cars each, will pull into Paducah where it will give two performances, one in the afternoon and one in the evening. Citizens of Paducah, who get up early enough may be able to see both attractions, the sky tramp and circus. The small boy will surely not miss the latter and many a mother will worry for a moment when she calls her son tomorrow until she remembers it is circus day and that the youngster had long before slipped out of the house and is down at the railroad yards watching the army of circus employees unloading cage after cage of wild animals, and coaxing the elephants, camels, horses, ponies, llamas, giraffes etc., to come down from the cars.

From the time the trains reach Paducah it will be a very busy day for the hundreds of employees of the Norris and Rowe show. Tents must be pitched and everything made ready for the monster street parade. The parade will start at 10 o'clock and will traverse the principal downtown streets. After that it will return to the grounds and the performers will have a little time to rest until the afternoon performance begins.

Lovers of music, who understand and appreciate the value of harmony, will have a rare treat in the concert to be rendered by the combined bands of the circus. This concert will be given one hour before each performance. One hundred musicians will participate, and it has been arranged as a special added feature, under the direction of Bandmaster C. H. Tinney, a leader of international fame.

One of the many notable improvements of the Norris and Rowe circus is the complete new seating arrangement, consisting of new high backed opera chairs. They are wide chairs and have foot rests. There is ample room between chairs and at the end of each section are wide aisles. Each seat is numbered and an unformed usher takes each patron to the exact seat purchased in advance. The ticket wagon will be open continuously from the time it moves on the circus grounds in the early morning until the final performance. Still another improvement is the adoption of a new form a safety lighting system. The lights are absolutely safe from fire. Should they be blown down in case of sudden storm, the light would immediately go out of themselves from the fact that no illuminant is used but light created by a vacuum and air pump system.

Among the score of native and foreign troupes to be seen with the attraction there are three that stand out prominently by reason of the number and the startling feats they accomplish in midair and upon the ground. These are the Great Moore Family of aerial acrobats, the Flying Daumas and the Six Waltons.

A DOZEN FAMILIES CURED OF ITCH BY CUTICURA

Showed No Marks but Whole Body Itched Like a Million Mosquito-Bites—Sleep Out of the Question and Life Became an Inferno.

DOCTORS AND DRUGGIST TREATED THEM IN VAIN

"The Cuticura Remedies are the best in the world, as I know from experience. In Dowlais, South Wales, about fifteen years ago, families were stricken wholesale by a disease known as the itch. Believed me, it is the most terrible disease of its kind that I know of, as it itches all the time, day and night, and makes you lie in inferno. Sleep out of the question and you feel as if a million mosquitoes were attacking you at the same time. Yet you could see nothing on the skin. But the itch was there all right and I sincerely trust that I shall never see another a day in my life than those who were so affected. The male members and myself belonged to the same society and, as steward, it was my duty to visit the sick members once a week for sick benefit until they were declared off. That is how I became so familiar with the itch."

"The doctors did their best but their remedies were of no avail whatever. Then the families tried a druggist who was noted far and wide for his remarkable cures. People came from far and wide for treatments but his medicine made matters still worse, as a last resort they were advised by a friend to use the Cuticura Remedies. I am glad to tell you that after a few days' treatment with Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Salve, the effect was wonderful and the result was a perfect cure in all cases."

"I may add that my three brothers, three sisters, myself and all our families have been users of the Cuticura Remedies for fifteen or twenty years. Thomas Hugh, 1650 West Huron St., Chicago, Ill., June 28, 1909."

How often you see it in connection with Clothing advertisements and you are lead to believe that it signifies all that is worthy—that it means 999-944-1000 fine! Griffon Clothes not only have a fabric advantage over most other $15 suits, but they have, in even greater measure, a distinct STYLE advantage. They are made up as carefully and by as skilled workmen as many a $22.50 or $25 suit.

Daily Thought.

Go, take that task of yours, which you have been hesitating before, and shirking, and walking around, and on this very day lift it up and do it.—Phillips Brooks.

The new ordinance, absolutely prohibiting the using of any kind of fireworks inside the city, will make the small boy and the retail dealer in "shooting crackers" question the advantages of a sane Fourth.

That militant spirit seemingly has come down diminished from the men, who fought the war of the revolution, to the present generation, if we are to judge by the national D. A. R. meeting.

Louisville fans say, just wait, the Colonels will do better. They have the odds all on their side. Having won one game and lost five, the Colonels could not well be expected to do any worse.

Governor Patterson will be a candidate before the next Democratic primary in Tennessee. If a good man runs against him, the moral status of any citizen of Tennessee ought to be accurately gauged by the way he votes in the primary.

O TEMPORA!

"Tempora mutantur, et nos mutamur in illis"—The times are changed and we are changed with them, runs a Latin saying.

Times change, but the genius of our institutions is enduring; because they are established on the highest conception of the social obligations and rights of mankind, which each succeeding age is better able to appreciate. Thus we see men spring into public life, who leave an enduring impress upon the progress of the nation and a name in history; other men assume the leading place in their time and disappear, leaving only a stain on the pages of history, which eventually is erased, and subsequent generations know them not. Of such is Nelson A. Aldrich, today the bravest man, with the possible exception of Elihu Root, in the United States senate, and acknowledged leader of the majority up to this hour. He caught the spirit of the times, but never the deeper spirit of American institutions. The times change and Nelson A. Aldrich finds himself out of sympathy with them. What good he accomplished will remain but not associated with his name. Only the misapprehensions of his era, which we at close view call evil, goes into the composition of his reputation. Perhaps, it is a charitable Providence, which covers up such magnificent failures.

Two decades from now the names of Roosevelt, Bryan, Taft and one or two others will be as well known as in our own; but the searchers of the newspaper files of 1909 and 1910 will wonder at the prominence given the name of Nelson A. Aldrich.

From high political source comes the announcement that Senator Aldrich will retire from politics at the end of his present term in 1911. His health is given as the reason for his retirement at the age of 59 years, just at the ripe maturity of his intellectual powers, at the summit of life's hill, where poise and breadth of view are expected to make wisdom perfect. If this is the reason, the friends of Senator Aldrich have cause for grave apprehension. It must be some incurable malady that has loosened his grip on the things of this world; for congressional burdens do not usually break down men's constitutions. We observe many old men in the senate; Tom Platt held on with one foot in the grave for years and those whose health fails are usually stricken with the infirmities that come from overeating or too exciting activity in old age. We would learn the nature of Senator Aldrich's disease.

We do not believe the senior senator from Rhode Island is supersensitive to criticism, or is sulking under a sense of the injustice of popular opinion; nor can we imagine Rhode Island being captured by the insurgents.

Senator Aldrich is recorded in the book of congress as a "public official". For years he has been the leader of the senate majority. He is no orator, he does not rank among our greatest statesmen; but in that peculiar organization, through which the United States congress does its work, he proved the most efficient trader. He is a man without vanity, we should judge, not caring for the ephemeral honors of nominal headship, or the glory of newspaper notoriety. He fed ambition in others; he understood the men with whom he was associated, acquainted himself with what they most desired, and saw that they always got it—in consideration of their votes on such questions as Senator Aldrich interested himself. In the inner workshop, where committees revamp and revise bills that are introduced, Senator Aldrich studied measures as he studied men, and no bill, in which he was interested got by without Nelson A. Aldrich finding out just what it meant. Perhaps, this is why Nelson A. Aldrich's health is breaking under the strain of public work, and his colleagues are suffering only from gout and kindred ills.

Aldrich is rich, he is related by affinity and consanguinity to the Standard Oil company, his associates have been the heads of big industries, his life has been spent in the atmosphere of finance, on these questions no other man in public today is so well versed; but these are not the reasons why Aldrich is the leader of the senate. He is leader, because he works at being senator. When our insurgent, reform, progressive or any other kind of senator puts the same amount of brains and energy into studying his colleagues and studying the measures introduced, instead of making spread eagle speeches for the Washington correspondents to mail out in advance to their papers, he will be like Nelson A. Aldrich in influence.

Senator Aldrich has been useful during that period, happily just passing, when material things occupied the exclusive attention of the nation, and the individual counted for naught. He has prevented the political barbarians, who would wreck civilization itself to crush out a little injustice on its surface, from ruining us, and he has enabled capital to attain the zenith of its productiveness. Now, that the old order is changing, it is not to be expected that Senator Aldrich will be in sympathy with the change. A great mind may be flexible, but it is seldom reflexible. Yet, Aldrich as head of the commission appointed to revise the monetary system, a work with which he hopes to crown his career, made a tour of the country addressing the populace on the subject; but Aldrich is a great specialist, capable only of thinking in technical terms and unable to catch the popular ear. The people are suspicious of his kind.

Like the rest of us, Aldrich is the product of his environment. He sees the welfare of the country involved in the protection of the country's finances; just as a lawyer sees it involved in the laws, the workman in the prosecution of labor, the churchman in devotion to religious ideals, the railroad man in the development of means of transportation, the farmer in the high prices of food stuffs. To point him out as the kinman of rapacious trusts is to do him injustice. Trusts were not primarily organized that one man might drive his competitors out of business. Personal knowledge of the formation of more than one assures us that trusts usually are formed as settlers once fled to the stockade when the Indians appeared: under the exigencies of fierce individual competition they united for mutual protection, and then the most able leader became the commander of all. Trusts and combinations of capital are the logical result of our competitive system, and Nelson A. Aldrich happened to be on a different side from us in the organization. Consequently, he sees things differently, and there may be something to be said for his side.

What concerns us now is the character of Aldrich's successor. Aldrich is a high class gentleman, as those who have had dealing with him agree. We, who have been caught electing a low grade of crook to public office now and then, must not be too hard on him. We hope Rhode Island will not elect as his successor the kind of men we occasionally elevate to high honors; one, that while bawling out from the hustings loud invective against the big combinations of capital, uses the legislative office as a means of blackmailing them. Our views of the trusts sometimes are affected like the sentiments of a gentleman, who is now high in McCracken politics, when he was appointed local agent for a certain brand of beer, and was reminded by a prospective customer of the severe criticisms he had once pronounced against the taste and quality of that brand. "The truth is, I never tasted it until I began selling it," he replied.

Tastes differ, of course; but the opportunity to taste is sometimes the deciding factor.

PIMPLES DISAPPEAR.

New Healing Agent Makes Quick Work of Them.

The dispensers of possum, the new skin discovery, ask that notice be given that no one is urged to purchase it without first obtaining the sample package which will be sent free to any one who writes to the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West 25th street, New York. This alone is sufficient to clear the complexion and to rid the face of pimples. Every one who has tried possum knows that the fifty-cent box, on sale at Gilbert's and R. W. Walker & Co.'s, as well as all other drug stores, contains sufficient for the worst cases of eczema, where the surface affected is not too large. The itching ceases on first application. It will also cure acne, tetter, blots, scaly scalp, hives, barber's itch and every other form of itch, including itching feet. Being flesh-colored and containing no grease the presence of possum on exposed surfaces, such as the face and hands, is not perceptible. Water and soap cannot be used in connection with it, as these irritate and prolong skin troubles, sometimes even causing them.

Aldrich is rich, he is related by affinity and consanguinity to the Standard Oil company, his associates have been the heads of big industries, his life has been spent in the atmosphere of finance, on these questions no other man in public today is so well versed; but these are not the reasons why Aldrich is the leader of the senate. Garner Bros. announce a new change in their business location, change in their business location, for the prosecution of their growing furniture trade by occupying the former premises of Nance & Rogers, giving them quarters 100x150 ft. and allowing them facilities that will greatly improve their business conditions affording an opportunity to meet the growing demand for their furniture. This firm was instituted in 1906, and operates with large capital and extensive facilities. Their spring goods have been artistically arranged and in their new quarters they are in a position to display it to advantage. For illustration, a handsome line of new beds have just been received and are arranged for display with springs and mattresses all ready for shipment. The building is a 3-story structure and all floors are completely stocked with the latest spring and summer furniture. Their stock is unsurpassed in beauty and design, the prices are reasonable and the assortment diversified. Housekeepers, as a rule, have grown tired of the sight of bare spaces and empty corners of floors unadorned with lovely rugs—mantels without ornaments—of walls without the light and glory of pictures—of windows without the sanctity of white curtains—and, in fact, of the general poor and needy appearance of some old and new homes. In addition to the regular stock of beautiful suits of furniture, single pieces and brass beds is the full line of light, airy and cool summer furniture now on hand. The atmosphere of home can be transformed by removing heavy furniture, thick rugs and hangings and substituting light rattan pieces, etc. Messrs. Garner Bros. are men thoroughly familiar with furniture dealing and invite their numerous friends to come and inspect their new stock in their new quarters which outrival many older establishments engaged in the furniture business. Garner Bros. also operate the Paducah Bedding Co. in which they manufacture all grades of mattresses from the best to the cheapest.

What concerns us now is the character of Aldrich's successor. Aldrich is a high class gentleman, as those who have had dealing with him agree. We, who have been caught electing a low grade of crook to public office now and then, must not be too hard on him. The committee will have power to fix the compensation of the commission.

First and second passages were given a resolution permitting W. F. Bradshaw to connect property at 1601 Broadway to sewer district No. 2. It was recommended by the board of health, but does not release Mr. Bradshaw from the liability of the cost of his share in the construction of sewer district No. 3, as the property rightfully belongs in the No. 3 district. The city engineer was ordered to issue a permit for the work.

S.S.S. CURES MALARIA

Malaria is a species of blood poverty known as anaemia. It is a condition in which the circulation is so weak and impure that it is unable to supply the system with sufficient nourishment and strength to preserve ordinary health.

The medical profession is divided in opinion as to the manner in which malarial poison gets into the blood. Some take the position that it is an atmospheric poison, the specific germs of which are breathed into the lungs and thus transmitted to the circulation. Others advance the opinion that persons become inoculated with the poison through the bites of mosquitos. All however agree that MALARIA is a blood affection, and any treatment to successfully overcome it must not only purify this vital fluid, but at the same time add the necessary qualities of richness and strength to the circulation.

The malarial poison destroys large numbers of the rich, red corpuscles of the circulation, and the peculiar paleness of anaemic persons is due to this fact.

A PHYSICAL WRECK.

During 1900 I was running a farm on the Mississippi River, and became severely afflicted with malaria; that for a year afterwards I was a physical wreck. I took a number of medicines recommended as blood purifiers, tonics and malarial eradicator, but nothing did me any good until I began to use S.S.S., which I did about a year ago. The result was that after taking several bottles of the large size I was as well and strong as ever was, and have never had a cold since. I now take S.S.S. every year as a preventive, and would advise everybody else to follow my example.

Why Do You Do It?

Why do you buy cheap whiskey bottled in bond only 4 years old and pay $1.00 per quart, when you can buy Ragan's Special, made in spring 1903, 7 years old, at $1.25 per quart? We have the same whiskey in barrel at $1.00 per quart. This whiskey is made by the Anderson Distilling Co., one of the best distilleries in the state of Kentucky. Don't buy cheap compound whiskey; it shortens your life. We handle nothing but absolutely straight whiskies, full measure bottles. If you try us once we will make a lifetime customer out of you. ## WHEE! EVERY TWINGE OF RHEUMATISM GONE

J. Kelley, bishop of Savannah, performed the marriage ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Michael Doran, chaplain of the United States Coast Artillery at Fort Screvens, and by the Rev. G. X. Schadewell, rector of the cathedral. Master Austin Lyons, a brother of the bride, and Master George Hoffman, were the bishop's trainbearers. The bride looked very girlish and attractive in her wedding gown of soft ivory museline and lace. It was made in princess style, relieved by a panel of lace that extended from the corsage to the hem, the skirt being slightly gathered to the panel at the knee and caught with small buckles of satin. The transparent yoke and collar were of lace. Folds of chiffon, caught with pearls, softened the bodice, and wide bands of the lace were laid in surplice fashion over the shoulders, narrowing to the waist line. The short sleeves were of folded chiffon and satin, opening at the front and the drapery of the skirt at the back was confined by a large satin buckle. She wore a white lace hat with bows of white satin. Her bouquet was a shower of lilles of the valley. The maid of honor wore a charming princess lingerie gown, with panel lace and deep flounce of embroidery edge with lace. Her hat was a leghorn, trimmed with yellow roses, and she carried a bouquet of marguerites.

After the ceremony a small reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyons on Monterey Square. In addition to the members of the family only about 25 young friends of the bride and bridegroom were present. The wide hallway of the house was adorned with bowes of lilles, branches of dogwood, and palms. Pink Killarney roses were used in the drawing room, and in the statuary niches that line the walls were palms and Boston ferns. Tall palms were grouped in the windows at one end and here Lieutenant and Mrs. Donovan stood to receive congratulations. The many handsome wedding gifts were shown in the music room. They included a case of flat silver, and several smaller sets of table silver, handsome silver bowls and dishes, silver carvers, a copper chafing dish, much very beautiful cut glass and china, and some attractive bric-a-brac.

The living room across the hall was decorated with dogwood and white lilles, and in the dining room everything was in white and green. On the mantel were vases of lilles and over the cabinets big branches of dogwood. The table held a big basket filled with Easter lilles, the handles decorated with a white dove. At the four corners were silver candlesticks, garlanded with smilax that fell from the chandelier above, and sprays of smilax were scattered over the damask.

"L'eut, and Mrs. Donovan left last night for Atlanta and Washington. The bride's going away gown was a

ALL DOWNWARD ON THE MARKET

TENDENCY THROUGHOUT THE WEEK IN WHEAT.

Abundant Rains in Winter Belt Forecast Bumper Crop—Heavy Buying.

PROVISIONS ON THE TOBOGGAN.

Chicago, April 19.—Bearish sentiment in the wheat market was rampant all during the week, general rains over the winter belt, poor cash demand and rosy spring wheat and European crop prospects causing the believers in lower prices to grow bold. The bulls toward the last of the week were hard pressed, there being a suspicion, shared by many in the trade, that the big bull leaders had quietly sold out under cover. There was little to justify this theory however. In fact, the Bartlett-Patten house gave the market good support much of the time, although its orders were insufficient to absorb the vast quantity of wheat on sale. There was great deal of covering of short wheat by brokers acting for leading shorts. The fact that much of their buying was based on a sub rosa report that Snow, the Bartlett-Patten crop expert, would issue a very bearish estimate of the abandoned wheat acreage, was probably responsible for the suspicion that the big bulls were trying to unload. The Bartlett-Patten brokers were certainly busy late in the week buying both July and September wheat, and they were open buyers of September. In their mad advances to customers they said they still are of the opinion that wheat should be bought.

The bears in the trade assert confidently that the weakness shown this week was only a tuning up of the orchestra as a prelude to the real bear music that would be heard in the pit later. They regard it as immaterial whether or not the big bulls have abandoned their holdings or their position, but assert that the legitimate situation is heavy enough in any event to overwhelm all buyers at current prices.

RAINS CAUSE A DROP.

Wheat started on its downward course on Monday, when liberal rains over Kansas and weakness in the cash market served to bring about a general decline. The chief pressure was on the new crop months. May delivery was very much neglected. There was a general commission house rush to sell early in the day, which was supplemented by more or less short selling by pit traders. The pressure was largely from influential speculators and from elevator people. The buying was largely in the way of taking profits by shorts, and there were further additions to the holdings of the leading longs.

week. More business was done on that day in the May delivery than has been seen in this future for many weeks. Plentiful rains in Kansas and continued weakness in the cash situation were again the important factors. There was a great deal of May liquidation as well as much shifting of holdings from May to deferred months. Bearish sentiment was rampant and both long and short wheat was coming on sale in great profusion. Substantial buying to cover shorts by northwestern houses and by local speculators along with further buying by the leading longs finally checked the decline. The rains in Kansas were too heavy and general to admit of any doubt that the drought in that state was effectually broken. The rainfall approached a cloudburst in portions of Kansas and Oklahoma, and it was fairly heavy in Nebraska.

The trade was much mystified at the rather important shifting of interests on Thursday. Reports were current that the leading eastern longs had unloaded and that the local holding of cash wheat had been taken over by the Armour Grain company. This was denied by the interested parties. Actual transactions in the pit on this day included the purchase of probably 1,000,000 bushels of May wheat by Flinley Barrell, and the sale of probably as much by another big house.

May wheat this week sustained a net loss of 3 1/2 cents, July was 3 1/2 cents lower, and September declined 2 1/2 cents.

CORN GAINS STRENGTH.

Corn, after a weak start on Monday, regained all its lost ground later in the week on heavy buying, chiefly to cover shorts and on purchases by spreaders. On Tuesday over 5,000,000 bushels were bought by three big local commission houses, and there was a big demand from pit traders who were following the lead of the large interests. May corn was 1/2 cent lower for the week, while July and September each gained 1/4 cent.

The oats market was the strongest on the list. There was heavy buying by the Patten house, which took May and July, and by commission houses, who bought both July and September.

There were a few complaints from Illinois points of poor germination and of insufficient rains, while both this state and Indiana were talk ing of more or less damage as the result of the recent frost. The shipping for oats is considered very good. May oats were 1/2 cent higher for the week, while July and September each advanced 1/4 cent.

Provisions hit the toboggan with a running start on Monday, and continued to descend all week. Liquidation sales were started on the first day of the week on the bearish government report on the condition of hogs and the poor export showing in comparison with this time last year. The demand was poor and support jacking until prices touched the low point for the week when Cudahy brokers made fair purchases.

May pork lost $2.15 in price, July was $2.07 lower and September declined $1.80. Lard declined nearly one cent per pound. At the low point last week May pork was off nearly $5 from the recent high point. Provision bears make the point that Australian and Argentine frozen meats are being offered in New York in liberal quantities. There has been heavy liquidation in provisions lately and shorts generally have taken their profit. Gregson, the provision specialist, says the market has been over sold. He looks for the country to be more independent in marketing of hogs from now on, and there are indications of a much better fresh meat trade.

was a good crowd of local traders and butchers in evidence this morning, though but few outside buyers here, and the general tone of the market was slow with values anywhere from a dime to a quarter lower. Choicest hand weight butcher cattle were the most popular sellers, and early sales of that class of cattle were effected at a decline of about a dime, but the heavy butcher steers, well as medium and common kinds, were a drug and as much as 15¢ off. Sufferers from indigestion are waking up to the fact that peppermint lozenges, charcoal and "dyspepsia cures" are only makeshifts in the cure of so troublesome a complaint as chronic indigestion. What is required is something that will not only help which will tone and train the digestive apparatus to again do its work normally, and this these simple remedies cannot do.

There is something more to the cure of indigestion than sweetening the breath, and yet a remedy may contain permanently as the basis of indigestion poor bowel circulation, and that requires a scientific corrective. We know of no remedy that combines these requirements better than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which has been sold for a dozen of centuries.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a laxative tonic, a scientific blending of natural ingredients for the cure of constipation, indigestion, liver trouble, sour complaints. Its ingredients will stimulate and tone the stomach and bowel muscles so that they will again do their work naturally when that has been accomplished your trouble is over. Fannie Stuart, Staunton, Va., was a long time sufferer, as was O. Tuck, Blackburn, Mo., and they both found their cure when they became convinced that pills and tablets salts "dyspepsia cures" etc., were at best only temporary reliefs. They first accepted Dr. Caldwell's offer of a free sample bottle, which willingly sends to anyone who forwards name and address after having convinced themselves through the free sample, they bought Syrup Pepsin dollars a drachm at fifty cents and one

"He Conquers, Who Conquers Himself".

"He conquers, who conquers himself" held the last of the month or possibly the first week in April.

This motto was adopted yesterday afternoon by the faculty and the members of the High school as the motto for the school. The High school has never had a motto, and it was considered appropriate that one should be selected.

Arrangements have been made for a special train that will convey the students of the High school and the teachers of the public school to Cairo, April 29. The students will go as rooters for the annual debate with Cairo, which will be held Friday night. The teachers will go to visit the Cairo schools. The plan was suggested by Superintendent Carnagay, and was approved by the board.

According to a rule of the board the teachers are permitted to spend two days of each school year visiting schools, and the trip will be made to Cairo on the same day of the debate. The train will leave Paducah at 7:30 o'clock and will arrive in Cairo at 9 o'clock permitting the teachers to spend the entire day in the schools. The special train will return after the debate although any teacher may return on the 8 o'clock train.

Marvin Sims and McClaine Mitchell will represent Paducah in the debate, and they are busy preparing their arguments.
